Once Upon-a-Time Stories

by Kate Marcia Forbes

MOUSIE GRAY.

He would sit up on his little hind feet and hold a grain of corn between his front feet, which he would use just like hands. Grandma soon said he must have a different kind of a house, for he could run in and out of his box any time he wanted to, and was soon scampering all over the place. You know it isn't a bit nice to have mice in one's house.

Grandpa had a big, old-fashioned corn popper that had had the handle burned off and it was just the thing for Mousie's new house. It had a tin lid which he couldn't make holes in with his sharp little teeth and the sides were made of screen wire, so that he had plenty of fresh air and light and could look out all the time.

We tied two little glass salt cellars on the inside of the wire, and he had one for fresh water and one for corn. He was fond of bread and cheese and meat and we gave him little pieces from the table. After he had eaten he would wet his little hands with his tongue and wash his face and ears and hands just like a cat does. We never tired of playing with him and watching him.

Often he would go to sleep warmly snuggled in our hands and when he woke up he would scamper all over us and make queer little squeaks. Auntie had long, beautiful braids of hair and Mousie Gray used to run up on her braids and sit on top of her head. One day mama and auntie had just come home from Sunday school. It was a very cold day in the winter and old Dandy, the white dog, was scound asleep by the stove with his head on his paws. As soon as we got our fingers warm we took Mousie Gray out of his house to play. All of us were having lots of fun until Mousie ran too close to Dandy.

Right across Dandy's feet and under his chin went Mousie Gray as fast as he could scamper. His little, soft, sleek body tickled Dandy and suddenly woke him up. With a jerk of the head, Dandy gave one big jump, catching Mousie Gray tight under his chin.

Poor little Mousie Gray! It killed him before he could even squeak!

Perhaps you can imagine how sorry we were. We cried and cried, and could not be comforted for many days, until our uncle brought us Peeter and Teeter—but that is another story.

ANNUAL CUSTOM OF EGG ROLLING GIVES DELIGHT

More than 400 happy, laughing children of a score of different nationalities observed Easter yesterday afternoon by following the ancient custom of "egg-rolling." Arcadia, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Frear in Punahou street, was the scene of the festival, and the broad, green lawn provided ample space for the "roll."

For the last several years Mrs. Frear has been hostess to the kiddies at Easter time, and they have come to look forward to the day with keen anticipation. In receiving the children yesterday, Mrs. Frear was attended by Governor Pinkham, Mayor John C. Lane and Gerrit P. Wilder.

"As the children 'passed in review' before their hostess, each was presented with a biblicus and a small basket filled with colored Easter eggs. Following this a combined chorus of school children sang "Under the Palms," a song composed by Mrs. Frear. "Bugle Calls" was an impressive ceremony performed by Central grammar school pupils, with Charles Cohen, attired in military regalia, as bugler. With the sounding of "Colors," Dorothy Durano hoisted the Stars and Stripes and salutes were offered. The flag was lowered as the bugler sounded "Retreat." This was followed by a series of folk dances and songs by pupils from the Kaula and Normal schools. An exhibition drill was given by students from the Kamehameha schools under the leadership of James Spencer.

The egg-rolling contests were begun at the conclusion of the program. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon, and Mrs. Frear tendered the usual invitation for next Easter. Among those who assisted in entertaining the children were Mrs. Norma Adams, Miss Dorothy Guild, Rev. J. P. Erdman, Dr. R. D. Williams, Prof. Charles T. Fitts, Mr. Wilder and public school teachers.

VOLUNTEER CLUB LEADERS LUNCH AND MAKE PLANS

Y. W. C. A. Extension and Educational Committee Act as Hostesses

The educational and extension committee of the Young Women's Christian Association entertained 20 guests at a luncheon last Saturday in honor of volunteer club leaders. The luncheon colors were yellow and white, with Shasta daisies as decoration. These colors contrasted beautifully with the soft blues and grays of the clubroom, which upon this occasion was put to a new use.

Mrs. A. L. Andrews, the chairman of the committee, voiced the appreciation of the services rendered by the club leaders and introduced the speakers at the informal discussion which followed. Miss Leonora Andersen, the physical director, explained the rules governing the athletic pennant which is being competed for by the clubs and announced the offer of a silver loving cup by Miss Alice Hopper to the club which wins the tennis championship.

Miss Rose A. Latschar outlined the educational program followed this year by the Tse Mui Club, the Chinese girls' club, of which she is the leader. This program has included talks upon household management by prominent women of the city competent to speak upon various phases of this subject. Mrs. Lloyd R. Killam next outlined the course of Bible study followed by the Nanshi Club, the Japanese girls' club, of which she is the leader.

Miss Sadie Sterritt and Miss Nora Sturgeon explained the purposes of the Lei Mamo, a club which after three years of slow growth under adverse conditions has recently affiliated with the Young Women's Christian Association and has gained the advantages of the association equipment.

Miss Alice Knapp reported briefly upon the activities of the large and enthusiastic Business Girls' Club, in whose organization she was influential.

Miss Cora Varney, the acting general secretary, announced somewhat more in detail than heretofore the plans for the summer camps and asked for the assistance of the club leaders in providing entertainment for the girls at the club camp, which will probably be located on the Peninsula. Miss Annetta Diekmann, the extension secretary, carried the guests even further into the future with plans for the work of next year.

Immediately following the luncheon Miss Diekmann accompanied a committee from the Jolly McKinleyites to the Leahi Home to deliver the lilacs, violets, sweet peas, daisies, chrysanthemums and other flowers gathered by the high school girls' club as an Easter gift. The Jolly McKinleyites were represented by Miss Thelma Wickes, their president; Miss Esther Kahn, their vice-president, and Miss Emma Kaeo.

GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

Hair Becomes Charming, Wavy Lustrous and Thick in Few Moments
Every Bit of Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out

For 25 cents you can save your hair. In less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is thin, scraggly, faded, dry, brittle or itchy. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp, if you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.—Adv.

BELGIANS IN TRENCHES RECEIVE REMEMBRANCES

Monthly bits of cheer are being forwarded to 20 soldiers who are fighting under the tattered Belgian flag "somewhere in France" by as many Honolulu women, who have "adopted" these soldiers and who are endeavoring to make their lives in the trenches along the battlefronts as cheerful as possible. Many of these soldiers who are being aided locally are mere boys who have lost all track of their parents. Others are fathers who do not know where their families are or how they are faring. The Honolulu women are members of the "godmother" system.

Announcement

Miss Hamlin announces that her buildings at 2230 Pacific Ave., in the heart of the San Francisco residential district, overlooking San Francisco bay, will be open for summer boarders from June 1 to August 20, 1916, at moderate rates.
